LUXEMBOURG INTERNATIONAL COURSE on LASER SURGERY in ORL

Centre Hospitalier de Luxembourg | Sep. 14 – 15, 2018

The workshop is intended to orientate ENT surgeons looking to work with CO₂ lasers during their procedures, particularly on benign and malignant pathologies in oropharynx or larynx and for the ear surgery.

Dear Colleague,

We would like to invite you to our CO₂ Laser Course for ENT:

- A comprehensive training course designed to allow participants to learn, consolidate and broaden their knowledge in using CO₂ Lasers during ENT Procedures
- Includes performing supervised training - HOT exercises on fresh pigs larynges for ENT - for better understanding of laser tissue interaction
- Delegates will experience live surgeries, presentations, Q&A as well as performing supervised hands-on exercise on fresh pigs larynx in order to better understand the laser tissue interaction

Looking forward to seeing you there!
